DreamMaker Bath & Kitchen of West Greenwich Recognized as Certified Lead Carpenter

WACO, Texas – (Jan. 9, 2008) – Bruce Engstrom, owner of DreamMaker Bath & Kitchen of West Greenwich, recently completed training for the National Association of the Remodeling Industry’s (NARI) Certified Lead Carpenter program.

Certified Lead Carpenters (CLCs) oversee all aspects of a remodeling project including customer satisfaction, personnel management, administration and more. To qualify for the certification, applicants must have a minimum of five years continuous practice in the remodeling industry, successfully complete a half-day written examination and strictly adhere to NARI’s Standards of Practice and Code of Ethics.

“Bruce is a tremendous professional,” said Doug Dwyer, president and owner of DreamMaker Bath & Kitchen. “Achieving the Certified Lead Carpenter designation exemplifies his drive to go above and beyond and provide quality craftsmanship and service to customers.”
